

CMA Studio Summer Session – Week 9 Activity

Print out these pages to color and write along while you listen to the concert.

Send a photo of yourself completing the activity to info@civictimusic.org for a chance to win a family pack of tickets!

CMA Week 9 Activity

Complete the crossword puzzle below

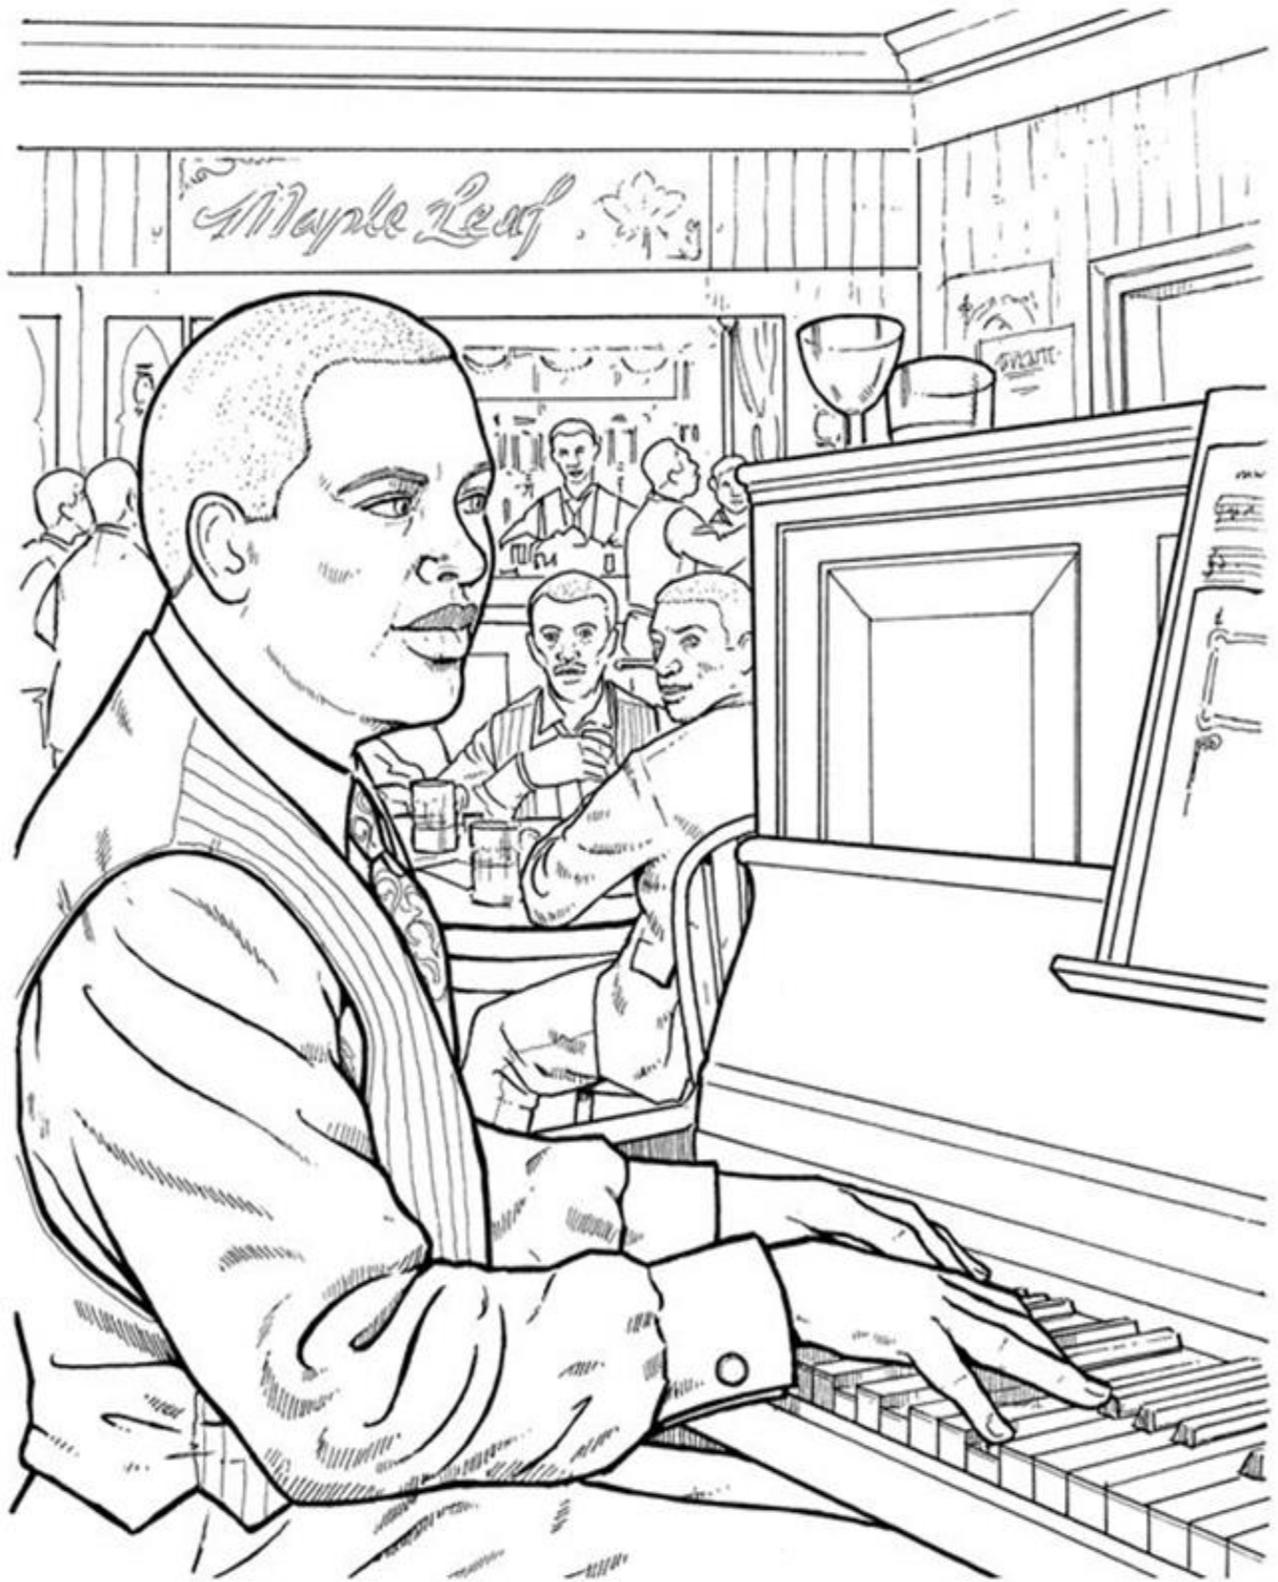

Across

- American composer who wrote rags
- The word we use to describe HOW we play notes on a string instrument
- The word for a group of four musicians
- The smallest instrument in a string quartet

Down

- The largest instrument in a string quartet
- The official word for plucking a string with our finger
- This composer went deaf during his lifetime
- The word for 'play with the bow'
- The composer of 5 Novelettes
- The middle sized instrument in a string quartet

SCOTT JOPLIN was a Black American composer, performer, and teacher from Texas. He lived from 1867(or 68) – 1917 and is best known for writing RAGTIME music!